Members of the New Jersey Area joined together for Mass at the Spring Lake Country Club. Reverend Monsignor Michael T. Mannion, STL, ChM and one of the founders of Discovery House, celebrated the Mass for the congregants. A dinner followed with an informal discussion of area charities including the lunch break in Red Bank and the Center in Asbury Park.

Dr. Richard Esposito, KM (center) and Father Sal DiStefano along with Auxiliaries from the New Jersey Area participated in the Saint Ann's soup kitchen in Newark. The Order in the Archdiocese of Newark has primary responsibility to staff the kitchen on alternate Saturdays.

Illinois Area

Along with the Federal Association of the Order of Malta in Chicago, the Illinois Area is embarking on a longstanding project with Catholic Charities. The location of the project is House of the Good Shepherd, which is located in the Wrigleyville neighborhood of Chicago.

World Leaders Call for Protection of Persecuted Religious Minorities at Holy See Event

On September 22, the Holy See sponsored a side event entitled “Protection of Religious Minorities in Conflict,” together with the Permanent Observer Mission of Hungary to the UN and the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy.

Archbishop Paul Richard Gallagher, the Holy See’s Secretary for Relations with States, said protecting religious minorities is one of the most urgent responsibilities of the international community, since recent data shows severe violations against religious freedom are occurring in 27 countries around the world.
