World Day of the Poor

November 17th

It is not too early to think about activities for your Area to engage with and assist the poor in your Area. Please consider sharing your plans with the New York office so that they can be added to the website's calendar and featured in this monthly email. Every Area, large or small, can do something to live the charism of helping the sick and the poor while uniting with the Catholic Church around the world to recognize Christ in the faces of the poor.

2020 Online

International Summer Camp

The Order of Malta's International Summer Camp 2019 hosted over 500 people at the Benedictine monastery of Ettal in Bavaria, Germany. Staff and volunteers organized a variety of activities for the camp's honored guests, young adults with disabilities.
