April 3rd Spiritual Outreach Call

We invite you to call in to April's Spiritual Outreach Call on Wednesday, April 3rd at 11 AM ET. Father Owen Moran, ChM, of the New Jersey Area, will discuss the topic, "Why Is Easter Considered the Most Important Feast in the Liturgical Year?". Click here for the dial-in instructions. Members are encouraged to call in for their monthly "dose" of spiritual encouragement. Can't join us live? All of our Spiritual Outreach Calls are recorded and uploaded to the website.

From those of us who work on Spirituality in Action:

"We would like to extend our blessings to all members throughout the Lenten Season and we wish you all a very blessed Easter!
Thank you for all you do for Our Lords, the Sick and the Poor."

who were in attendance enjoyed a warm meal of chicken, vegetable soup, pork over rice, and tea and coffee.

Dallas

On Sunday, March 24, Dallas Area Members provided a dinner and a discussion on the Order of Malta for Catholic students at Southern Methodist University (SMU), after their Sunday 5:00 pm Mass. Knight and Dames brought food for the dinner and led the discussion for these Catholic students, the largest identified religious group on SMU's campus.

New Jersey

Knights, Dames, and Auxiliary members in the New Jersey Area commemorated the International Day of the Unborn on Sunday, March 24. Members joined together to attend Mass, participate in a public Eucharistic Procession on a major thoroughfare, hear Benediction and pray at the Memorial to the Unborn in Holy Cross Cemetery in North Arlington New Jersey.

We are excited to announce that online registration for our 4th Annual Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help is now open. All Members, Chaplains, Auxiliary Members, Year of Formation Candidates, and your families are invited to join us on August 1st - 4th as we meet in Green Bay, Wisconsin and travel to the only Marian apparition site in the United States approved by the Catholic Church. Please click here to register.

Upcoming

Members of the Order of Malta from Monmouth County (NJ) cooked and served a festive Valentine dinner for clients at The Center in Asbury Park in February. The volunteer not-for-profit service organization provides support for people living with HIV/AIDS and their caregivers.

New Jersey Area members gather at Christ the King Church, New Vernon, once a month to fill 240 backpacks of non-perishable food items for three-to-five-year-old youngsters. The bags are then transported to a Catholic Charities daycare center in Paterson where they are distributed to the children at the end of the month when family food stamp benefits may run out and supplemental nutrition is required. Philadelphia's Area Chair, David Ermine, JD, KM, had the privilege of viewing the original 1783 letter (shown below) from the Order's Grand Master to Benjamin Franklin. He wrote to communicate his acceptance of the "Libertas Americana" medal, awarded to him for the Order of Malta's contribution to American independence. Click here to read more.

Upstate New York

Local members and their families in the Upstate New York Area prepared and served lunch to approximately 100 residents of the South end neighborhood of Albany at the Welcome Table Soup Kitchen on Saturday, March 2nd. Members welcome luncheon guests on their arrival, set tables, inform guests of the day's menu choices, take the guests orders for lunch, serve lunch items that have been purchased or made by members. After lunch, members clean tables and chairs, wash dishes, and otherwise handle clean up.
